Participant Orientation

- Report to Room 116. A Fashion Show staff member/runner will direct you to your room when it is time. Look for the person with a clipboard.
- Relax and be confident. This is your time to tell the judges about clothing and textiles experiences.
- Be aware of the person who is scheduled before you in the judging order. Times are approximate.
- Enter the judging room.
- Introduce yourself. Include your name, your county, years in clothing project and fashion show.
- Judges will ask you questions. Please answer only the question that you are being asked. You have five minutes with judges.
- At the end of interview model your outfit for the judges. The judges will learn about you from your entry paperwork as well.
- Thank the judges for their time and shake each judges hand.
- Have fun.

Judges' Orientation

- Please arrive on time so that you will have time to preview all entry paper work prior to interviews.
- The Fashion Show participant will enter judging area. They will tell you their name, their county, their years in the clothing project and years in the Fashion Show.
- Please do not allow formal presentations, instead ask the standard questions. This process should take five minutes. You will have a timekeeper assigned to you.
- At the end of the question and answer portion. The 4-H member will model their outfit for you.
- Please be very supportive of the young person and provide feedback to let them know their strengths and weakness pertaining to clothing and textiles and their grooming.

Judges' Orientation

- Provide numerical scores in the actual score column of the score sheet. You will not have to total your scores. We have tabulators. One of the co-chairs will collect the score sheets every so often. You will not hold on to them until the end of the contest. There is not a need to collaborate with the other judge on final placing since we are using numerical scores.
- Please initial your score sheet in case the tabulators have questions or in the event of a tie. The score will be cut off of the score sheet before they are returned to contestants.
- Thank you for your time.
