MANAGEMENT

Promoting 4-H through Social Media - Rebekah Maxwell, Owner ReStep Marketing

Learn how to effectively use social media networks such as Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter, to promote your local 4-H programs. This session will discuss the basics of what information to have on your profile and how to write content to keep your accounts engaging.

Developing Teen Leaders & Engaging Volunteers - Darlene Locke, 4-H Specialist

Leadership in a Box! Let's work together to Empower Teens and Engage Volunteers using the 4-H hands-on learning module. In this active workshop, volunteers will participate in activities to stimulate their own leadership skills which can then be transferred to 4-H club members. Be prepared to walk, talk, share, explore and laugh! Let's have some fun.

4-H Club Resources Website

Scavenger Hunt

Maneuvering through the Texas 4-H Website can turn into quite the scavenger hunt. Join us in this session to learn the ins and outs of the Texas 4-H website, the location of information for events and activities and how to utilize the information to use with your 4-H families and strengthen your programs.

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

Project Areas

Buzzing in for Quiz Bowls - Starla Garlick, Agent

Quiz bowls are fun! Research tells us that people are more willing and able to learn when the learning experiences are fun. Learn how to develop a quiz bowl team; or discover how to use quiz bowls to enhance 4-H project, officer training, or as a tool to teach knowledge and skills about 4-H in general.

Healthy Lifestyles - Sheryl Nolen, Agent

What is the 4th H in 4-H? Healthy Lifestyles!! It's a judging contest designed to offer youth with food and nutrition background opportunities to show case their knowledge. The contest is set up with health related scenarios and situations that require contestants to find the best solutions. Part of the contest is judging and ranking products/solutions and part is presentation. This contest requires teams to analyze the situation, develop a solution and make a team presentation to a panel of judges. Join us for a round of Healthy Lifestyles mania!

Photography Judging - Paula Guajardo, Volunteer

What is photography judging, and how do I use this opportunity in my 4-H Photography Project? Learn about the Contest, and how to use Photography Judging as an opportunity to train 4-H members, as well as host local level competitions as you prepare for district or state competitions.

Can You Name this Product? Ag Product

ID Contest - Rosa Calhoun, Volunteer
Can you identify all these agriculture products? Ag Product Identification is a contest consisting of 20 Texas agricultural products selected and exhibited at separate stations. Questions are general to the industry that produces that product. This is a good way to tie projects together (i.e. cooking method, use, growing season, specific nutrition of the cut or variety). Join us how to study for, set up, a build a team for the contest.

A Fashion Review - Lana Smith, Volunteer & Peyton Smith, Ambassador

Glam up your clothing and textiles project. Explore ways that you as leaders can engage youth in learning to sew, being good consumers, and designing clothes and accessories as well as exploring careers in the fashion industry. This session will share ideas, strategies, and resources.

4-H Scholarships - Toby Lepley, 4-H Specialist

How are you planning on paying for college? Do you know what it costs to attend a Texas University? Are you familiar with the purchase of financial aid? This 4-H Opportunity Scholarship Workshop will help you answer some questions about college and how you can apply for support through the Texas 4-H Program. The workshop will focus on eligibility and criteria of the 4-H Opportunity Scholarship and how best to start preparing for when the 2018 application is released. The session will include a Q&A.

Outdoor Challenge - Kristy Titzman, Agent & Chadd Caperton, Agent

Are you up for the CHALLENGE! Use the 4-H Outdoor Education project to learn skills such as camping, wildlife watching, etc. Join us for an overview of the Texas 4-H Outdoor Challenge; where and how to find resources to study and practice, as well as what the contest looks like and information about the individual events.
