TEXAS A&M AGRILIFE EXTENSION
2017 Texas 4-H Opportunity Scholarship Program

Myths about Financial Aid

- Myths:
  - My parents make too much money, so I'll never qualify.
  - Only people with perfect GPAs get scholarships.
  - You can only get financial aid if you pay someone to help you find it.
- Truths:
  - Even a millionaire can receive financial aid.
  - Scholarships are not always awarded based solely on GPA.
  - You don't need to pay anyone for help – build a positive relationship with your university financial aid office!

Things to Remember

- No quotas are set for counties, districts, or regions!
- Fort Worth Stock Show is the only livestock show donor that requires participation in their show.
- DONORS set the criteria!
- Make sure high school academic proficiency has been met and college entrance exams have been taken early and often.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Things to Remember

- Each applicant receives a total score. Scores are sorted highest to lowest and applicants are matched with the MAXIMUM dollar scholarship for which the applicant qualifies.
- Scholarships restricted to a major, a college, and/or course of study is verified each semester during the duration of scholarship. DON'T LIE TO GET A SCHOLARSHIP – IT WILL CATCH UP TO THE APPLICANT!

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Things to Remember

- Narratives that have only been written once are rarely effective!
- Printer problems and computer crashes are a fact-of-life, plan ahead and manage your time.
- High school counselors need time to collect official transcripts for submission.
- Print on normal copier/typing paper – NO bond, color, or perfumed paper!

Ask Yourself

- Do I meet the basic criteria/requirements?
- Is the application complete?
- Has the story been told?
- Has spelling and grammar been checked?
- Is the application easy to read (minimum 10 point font)?
- Has the FAFSA – SAR individual report been?
- Have transcripts/test scores been requested?
- Are narratives well written and edited?
- Has a submission category been identified?
- Has the application received all signatures?
