Eligibility:

- All bona fide, active, 4-H Shooting Sports members are eligible to compete in the District 9 4-H Shooting Sports Matches, subject to the rules for active membership instituted by the county or local club.

Teams:

- Multiple teams consisting of three (3) or four (4) members each in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior age divisions may be entered by each county in the match. If a county does not have a complete team in each age division, shooters may compete as an individual. No shooter may be a member of more than one team in each discipline or represent more than one county. Teams must be declared while registering in 4-H Online for the event. To form a team all members must compete in the same discipline. Example: If one intermediate member from a county selects precision air rifle, then other intermediate members must also participate in the precision discipline to complete a team of 3-4 members (from the same county).

Individuals:

- If a county has additional participants after the age division teams have been designated, shooters may compete as an individual.

Age Divisions:

- Juniors (youth in grades 3rd – 5th)
- Intermediates (youth in grades 6th – 8th)
- Seniors (youth in grades 9th – 12th)

Safety For All Disciplines:

- All firearms must be unloaded from the case at the firing line and with actions open and Empty Chamber Indicators/Open Bore Indicator inserted at all times unless on the firing line under command of the Range Officer or during firearm safety inspection under supervision of check-in personnel.
- All shooters and other persons on or in the immediate vicinity of the firing line, including coaches, range officials and any spectators must wear adequate eye protection (glasses and/or goggles). The equipment must protect both eyes.
- All spectators/participants in the Air Firing Range building must wear eye protection.
- Ear protection is required by all shooters, coaches, and range officials within the smallbore shooting range. Ear protection is not required for air gun shooters, but either plugs or earmuffs may be worn by shooters at their discretion.
- Ammo should be carried separately from the firearm.
- Muzzle end of cases must be appropriately marked.
- No equipment or competition clothing will be permitted in the Education Building classroom
 - Participants & coaches will enter on the side door

Rule
Addition

Shooting Rules:

- The Texas 4-H Shooting Sports Program uses a national standard for a given discipline. During this 4-H event, 4-H rules and regulations described in this document supersede all others where differences exist.
- <https://texas4-h.tamu.edu/projects/shooting-sports/>

Targets:

- All targets are outlined in age divisions below per discipline and be found at the following link:
- <http://orionscoringsystem.com/orion/Product.aspx?ProductID=1>

Challenge & Review:

- Only contestants will be given the opportunity to challenge the scoring of their targets. Scorecards can be found at the check-in table. A $1 deposit is required for each challenge. A Coach, an Intermediate, or Senior competitor may accompany a junior competitor to submit his or her challenge. Intermediate and senior competitors must present challenges him or herself. Challenge fees will be returned if the challenge is upheld by the Chief of Scoring and the Contest Superintendent. Monies collected from challenges that are not upheld will be deposited into the District 9 4-H Fund.
- Contestants will have 15 minutes after the last event scorecards have been scored and returned back to the contest superintendents at the check in table. to report any scoring errors to the Statistical Officer. Any challenges must be made within that period. Challenges will be made to the Statistical Officer who will provide the challenged target(s) to the Contest Committee for resolution of the challenge in the presence of the challenging contestant prior to results being finalized.

Team Scoring:

- The top three individual scores from a designated team will be added for the composite team score. The low score will be dropped on four person teams. Scoring with the Orion system will be decimal scoring for all disciplines.

Coaches:

- Only one coach per shooter will be allowed on the range. Verbal and physical coaching will be allowed during preparation period only. Once record firing begins, no verbal instructions are allowed on the firing line. If a competitor needs coaching, they must notify the RSO (Range Safety Officer) and move behind the firing line to consult with their coach. RSOs may give coaches permission to help shooters on the firing line as needed. Junior competitors may have assistance from a coach on the firing line without RSO notification.
- Only one shooter per assigned lane, per gun, per relay will be allowed. If equipment needs to be shared, then coaches should request shooters be assigned separate relays to allow for equipment sharing. Youth must indicate if sharing firearms with another shooter when registering in 4-H Online for the event. Remember that shoot times will be scheduled based on age category within the discipline so plan accordingly with youth who need to share equipment.
- Please make sure that everyone understands the rules so that participants and coaches will have a positive experience on the firing line.
